The Savannah Mustang Club is a non-profit organization and supports various charities in the Savannah area. Profit from shows and fund raisers are divided between area charities, the cost of operation, and the scheduled activities for the enjoyment of club members.

The Savannah Mustang Club is a non-profit organization that was founded in 1989, during the 25th Anniversary of the Ford Mustang.

The club was Incorporated in 1991, under the Laws governing the State of Georgia. Also during 1991, the Savannah Mustang Club became a regional group of the Mustang Club of America.

The purpose of the club is to socialize with other Mustang enthusiasts and encourage preservation, restoration and enjoyment of all Mustangs.

The Savannah Mustang Club annually hosts a spring show & shine and a major Mustang and Ford show in the fall. Our club continues to grow in membership as well as the scope of its activities and we invite all Mustang enthusiasts to join us.
